FPU COORDINATOR - The summer season is an awesome time to start FPU! This two-page promotional tool will help you to get a great FPU class started.

- Page 1 is YOUR guide with some fun ideas as you lead your summer FPU class.
- Page 2 is a CLASS MEMBER calendar you can hand out as you promote the class!

Week 1 Super Saving

This doubles as the class kick-off party. Ask everyone to bring drinks and snacks. Have fun, mingle and get on the road to financial peace!

Week 2 Relating With Money

Have everyone come to class dressed as the "nerd" or the "free spirit." Be sure to let them know at the end of Week 1.

Week 3 Cash Flow Planning

Here's an idea! Have some fruit and other goodies to eat with a FLOWING chocolate fountain! You can borrow one or find an inexpensive one locally or online.

Week 4 Dumping Debt

Bring a toy dump truck to class and roll it around with a pair of scissors to cut up those credit cards. Remember if you're the leader, you get to go first!

Week 5 Credit Sharks In Suits

Go online or to your local toy store to find a TON of great shark toy ideas for this class. Remember, it's all about having fun as they learn how to deal with creditors.

Week 6 Buyer Beware

Everyone pays stupid tax at some time. Even Dave says he's done stupid with zeros on the end. Make a Dunce Cap. Pass it around as people discuss their biggest stupid purchase.

Week 7 Clause and Effect

Hopefully no one has ever had to say "you're fired" to you or anyone in the class. Practice saying this with the class to whoever may be trying to sell them something they don't need.

YOU'RE FIRED!

Week 8 That's Not Good Enough!

We're learning to buy only big, big bargains! So for this lesson, make a point by serving only generic snacks and drinks.

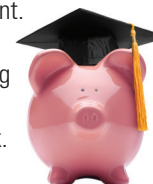

Week 9 Of Mice and Mutual Funds

Celebrating the "American Dream," do a patriotic theme and talk about investing in your country, your family and your church. A strawberry theme with a food match is always a hit.

Week 10 From Fruition to Tuition

Have a full-blown graduation party to celebrate being prepared for college or retirement. Get creative and have everyone bring their favorite "graduation" snack.

Week 11 Working In Your Strengths

Have everyone pitch in and get pizza delivered to the class this week. For some extra fun, collect a huge tip from everyone to give to the delivery person!

Week 12 Real Estate and Mortgages

Have a house-warming party! Serve homemade ice cream and have an 'unwanted' house warming gift exchange, "White Elephant" style. This could be the most fun the class has had yet!

Week 13 The Great Misunderstanding

Life is sweeter when you're debt free! Have everyone bring their favorite candy to share in class and discuss a group giving opportunity the whole class can share in.

PROMOTE! PROMOTE! PROMOTE!

Promotion is essential to having a successful FPU class, especially in the summer. Be sure to hold a Free Class Preview meeting and show people the preview DVD sometime in May in order to get kits ordered and the class started by the end of May. Pass out the summer calendar so people can read about the lessons and what they'll learn. Just keep these ideas under wraps so the class will be surprised from week to week. Have a great summer class!
