ALPHA GAMMA RHO FRATERNITY OFFERING FOUNDATIONS IN PERSONAL FINANCE TO MEMBERS THROUGH E-LEARNING PLATFORM

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity is offering Foundations in Personal Finance: College Edition to all of its collegiate members and chapters.

Foundations in Personal Finance: College Edition was created to challenge the way students view money and encourage them to make better financial decisions by teaching them the basics of saving, giving and spending. Personal finance expert Dave Ramsey, along with Rachel Cruze, teaches students the basics of managing money, saving for emergencies and getting out of debt.

Alpha Gamma Rho is the professional/social agricultural fraternity with more than 50,000 members nationwide and chapters on 71 campuses in the United States. Foundations in Personal Finance will be available through AGRconnect™, the Fraternity's lifelong e-learning platform.

“Alpha Gamma Rho is pleased to work with Dave Ramsey and his team to provide Foundations in Personal Finance – College Edition to our collegiate members,” said Phil Josephson, Executive Director of Alpha Gamma Rho. “We are proud to add this high-quality and valuable content to AGRconnect™. The course will, without a doubt, enhance our collegiates' experience and have a lasting positive impact. We believe this relationship will be transformational, paying great dividends for AGRconnect™ and throughout the entire Fraternity.”
