"THE DAVE RAMSEY SHOW" RECEIVES TWO NOMINATIONS IN THE 2006 RADIO & RECORDS NEWS/TALK INDUSTRY ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. For the fifth year in a row, Dave Ramsey host of the nationally syndicated "The Dave Ramsey Show" has been nominated for the Radio & Records News/Talk syndicated Personality of the Year. Ramsey is in good company. Also nominated in this category are Mike Gallagher of Salem Radio Networks' "The Michael Gallagher Show," Rush Limbaugh of Premiere Radio Networks' "The Rush Limbaugh Show," Sean Hannity of ABC Radio Networks' "The Sean Hannity Show," Michael Savage of Talk Radio Network's "The Savage Nation," and Dr. Laura Schlessinger of Take On The Day Inc.'s "The Dr. Laura Show." "The Dave Ramsey Show" is independently owned, operated and syndicated.

Bill Hampton, executive vice president of broadcasting for "The Dave Ramsey Show" was nominated in the News/Talk Industry Executive of the Year category for the second year. Hampton is joined by Nancy Abramson of WSJ Radio Network, Amy Bolton of Jones Radio Network, Kraig Kitchin of Premiere Radio Networks, Mark Masters of Talk Radio Network and Jim Robinson of ABC Radio Networks.

According to Radio & Records, "Voters will, as always, have a tough time choosing the winners, because every person and station nominated represents the very best the News/Talk format has to offer. Congratulations to each and every one of our nominees."

Subscribers to Radio & Records vote online for their favorite in each category. The winners will be announced at the 11th annual Radio & Records Talk Radio Seminar, March 2 to 4 in Washington, DC.

Dave Ramsey offers life-changing financial advice as host of a nationally syndicated radio program, "The Dave Ramsey Show," which is heard by more than 2 million listeners each week, on more than 250 radio stations throughout the United States. The three-hour live radio talk show focuses on life, love and relationships and how they happen to revolve around money.
