WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN DAVE RAMSEY'S FINANCIAL LITERACY CHALLENGE

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Ramsey Solutions' Foundations in Personal Finance announces the winners of the college scholarships awarded in Dave Ramsey's Financial Literacy Challenge, including a $40,000 scholarship. April is National Financial Literacy Month and to celebrate, Dave Ramsey and Zander Insurance invited high school students across the country to test their personal finance knowledge by taking an online quiz between April 7 and 25. Any senior scoring 100 percent on the quiz was eligible for the scholarship.

The 2016 scholarship winners are:

- Ellen McGregor, senior at Tupelo High School in Tupelo, Miss. for the $40,000 scholarship
- Sebastian Echegaray, senior at The Woodlands High School in The Woodlands, Texas for the $3,500 scholarship
- Bethany Bokel, senior at Mesquite High School in Gilbert, Ariz. for the $1,000 scholarship

There was also a Teacher Appreciation contest, allowing teachers to enter a giveaway throughout the month of April to win one of two $5,000 vacations. The two grand prize winners are:

- Robin Pringle, teacher at Covington High School in Covington, La.
- Todd Brown, teacher at Kingsburg High School in Kingsburg, Calif.

Other prizes were given to underclassman and teachers that included Chromebook laptops, an assembly with Ramsey Personality Anthony O'Neal, $500 gift cards and Foundations in Personal Finance curriculum.

Dave Ramsey created Foundations in Personal Finance, an easy to use, turn-key high school curriculum that teaches students the value of saving, spending and giving to guide them down the path of financial literacy. Foundations in Personal Finance can be used as a primary or supplemental resource to fulfill requirements in mathematics, economics, family consumer science, business mathematics and personal finance.
